Andy Legg resigns

Andy Legg has confirmed that he's resigned as Manager of Llanelli AFC.

Legg and his assistant, Steve Jenkins leave with immediate effect.

Former Wales international Legg offered his resignation to club Chairman Nitin Parekh at half time during Llanelli's Corbett Sports Welsh Premier League 6-1 defeat to Gap Connah's Quay at Stebonheath Park on Sunday. He told BBC Radio Wales Sport on Monday night:

"I'm just relieved that it's all over. In the past ten weeks we've only trained once and that's not what we're about. I was going to resign five weeks ago but kept going. It's sad because Llanelli is a fantastic club with a great bunch of lads. I've had six great years there but it's time to go."

The FAW understand that current players are owed almost two month's wages and are holding on to the European money owed to the club until certain assurances are given that past and present players are treated as preferential creditors.

Welsh Cup Third Round Draw

There are three all Corbett Sports Welsh Premier League ties in the Third Round of the FAW Welsh Cup, following Tuesday's draw.

Wales team manager Chris Coleman and former Wales International Matthew Jones made the draw at the FAW Headquarters in Cardiff and the ex-Llanelli midfielder drew his hometown former club away at gap Connah's Quay, which is the last draw the 2010/11 Champions would have wanted after suffering a 6-1 home defeat to Nomads on Sunday.

Beaten semi-finalists last year, Airbus UK Broughton will be pleased with home advantage, but in Mark Jones' Port Talbot Town, they will face a difficult test. The other top-flight tie sees current Welsh Premier League leaders Prestatyn Town travel south to the League's bottom club Afan Lido.

Current Champions TNS will be delighted with home advantage and they will host Chris Herbert's Conwy Borough at Park Hall, whilst last season's Runners Up Cefn Druids will be aiming for another Welsh Premier League scalp when they travel to Newtown.

Aberystwyth Town will be another club grateful for home advantage, but they would have preferred other opponents than the in-form Rhyl who top the Huws Gray Alliance currently.

Bala Town travel to Monmouth Town and Carmarthen Town visit Holyhead Hotspur with both matches a potential banana skin.

The Corbett Sports Welsh Premier League
Manager of the Month for October is

ANDY PREECE of Airbus UK

During the month, the Wingmakers won thirteen League points out of a possible fifteen - scoring a total of 16 goals in the process and only conceding four. Two of their wins were against Championship rivals Prestatyn and The New Saints.

The victories contributed to taking Airbus UK to the top of the Corbett Sports Welsh Premier League for the first time in their history.

Airbus UK Broughton appointed former Northwich Victoria manager Andy Preece as the man to succeed Craig Harrison as their director of football. He then started his UEFA Pro Licence with the FAW in May 2012.

The 44-year-old former Bury boss, who scored 125 goals from 387 Football League appearances as a player, is expected to be joined at The Airfield by his assistant at the Victoria Stadium and former Stockport County team-mate Darren Ryan, who had a brief spell with the Wingmakers last season and managed Newtown over a four-year period.

Congratulations to Andy on his award which will be presented soon by a representative of League sponsors Corbett Sports

The Corbett Sports Welsh Premier League Player of the Month for October is

MATTHEW REES of Carmarthen Town

Defender Matthew Rees has been voted player of the month for October by his opponents.

The former Wales U21 international polled most votes in the award which is sponsored by Corbett Sports.

Rees, who was formerly with Millwall and Swansea City, has been a consistent figure in the WPL - featuring prominently in the League with Port Talbot, Neath and now Carmarthen.

Matthew Rees joined Carmarthen Town after the demise of Neath FC at the end of the 2011/12 season. A former Wales under-21 international, he began his career with Millwall without making a first team appearance. After loan spells with Aldershot Town and Dagenham & Redbridge, he made his debut in the Football League with Swansea City in 2004, making three appearances.

Our congratulations to Matthew on winning this award.

Turning Richmond Park pink

On Saturday the 17th of November Carmarthen Town entertain Prestatyn Town in the live game on S4C. Neil Alexander, the Club Chairman, has arranged a Charity Day to coincide with the game. Hopefully this will raise the profile of the game and of the Welsh Premier League.

The team and the coaching staff will be wearing specially commissioned pink shirts for the game. We wish to thank the Welsh Premier League for permission to do this. These shirts will then be auctioned.

The match day programme will also have a pink cover. Thanks to Pro-print for their advice. We will be charging £2 for the programme with 50p being donated to the charities.

A marquee will be available for the charities to raise their profile.

Prior to the game and at half time some of the well known musicians who support Carmarthen Town will be entertaining the customers in the bar area.

Hopefully the Clay Shaw Butler Stand will be full of supporters wearing pink in support of Carmarthen Town for the day. There will be a prize for the best dressed supporter in pink

Troi'r Waun Dew yn binc

Ar ddydd Sadwrn 17eg o Dachwedd mae Caerfyrddin yn croesawu Clwb Pêl-droed Tref Prestatyn i Barc Waun Dew. Mae'r gêm yn cael ei ddarlledu yn fyw ar y teledu. Er mwyn creu diddordeb ychwanegol ar y dydd mae Cadeirydd y clwb wedi trefnu diwrnod elusennol i gyd-fynd gyda'r gêm.

Bydd y tîm ei hunan yn gwisgo crysau pink ar gyfer y gêm, gyda diolch i'r Uwch Gynghrair am roi caniatâd. Y gobaith yw gwerthu'r crysau yma fel rhan o ocsiwn.

Bydd rhaglen y dydd yn ymddangos mewn pink hefyd gyda diolch i Pro-print

Yn ogystal bydd yna babell arbennig yn cael ei chodi er mwyn i elusennau'r dydd cael cyfle i werthu eu nwyddau.

Yn y clwb, cyn dechrau'r gêm ac ar hanner amser, bydd rhai o gerddorion amlwg sy'n cefnogi'r clwb, yn ymuno yn yr hwyl gan ddi-ddanu'r gynulleidfa.

Rydym yn gobeithio hefyd bydd ein cefnogwyr yn gwneud ymdrech i geisio troi Eisteddle Clay Shaw Butler yn binc. Bydd yna wobwr i'r wisg binc orau.

The Last Word

from Gwyn Derfel

Due to me scheduling the Word Cup Semi-Finals last Thursday and the fact that S4/C didn't have an available slot for a live game on Saturday – only one game was played in the Corbett Sports Welsh Premier League over the weekend.

Three days after playing well, but ultimately losing to Carmarthen in the Word Cup game Llanelli hosted Gap Connah's Quay.

The Reds were beaten by a brace of hat-tricks by Jamie Petrie and teen sensation Rhys Healey.

A number of clubs have been keeping an eye on Healey – who's just celebrated his eighteenth birthday – so it's good to hear that the Nomads have put him on contract to protect their faith and investment in the talented youngster.

Although Llanelli were put to the sword on Sunday, I must compliment the staff and players for their commitment to the cause when the financial situation at the club is very difficult. Andrew Legg might have relinquished the managerial reins – but I'm sure that he'll do all that he can in future weeks to help the club through this tough period.

Y Gair Olaf

gan Gwyn Derfel

O ganlyniad i'r ffaith bod gemau Cwpan Word wedi eu chwarae nos Iau – a gan nad oedd gan S4/C le addas yn eu hamserlen ar gyfer gêm fyw ddydd Sadwrn, dim on un gêm chwaraewyd yn Uwch Gynghrair Cymru – Corbett Sports dros y Sul.

Dridiau wedi iddyn nhw golli ar Barc Waun Dew, cafodd Llanelli brynhawn anodd ar Barc Stebonheath wrth i Gap Cei Connah ennill o 6 i 1 – tair gôl yr un i Jamie Petrie a Rhys Healey.

Mae nifer o glybiau wedi bod yn cadw llygad barcud ar ddatblygiad Healey – sydd newydd ddathlu ei ben-blwydd yn ddeunaw. Braf o beth yw gwybod bod y clwb wedi rhoi cytundeb iddo er mwyn gwarchod eu buddsoddiad a'u ffydd yn y blaenwr bywiog.

Er i Lanelli golli'n drwm ddydd Sul – mae'n rhaid canmol y chwaewyr a'r staff yno am eu hymdrechion yn ystod cyfnod hynod anodd yn hanes y clwb. Efallai bod Andy Legg wedi cynnig ei ymddiswyddiad fel rheolwr ond dwi'n siwr y bydd yn gwneud popeth o fewn ei allu i gynnig help llaw i'r clwb yn y dyfodol pell ac agos.
