

Old Gold win in thrilling final

In one of the most thrilling finals for a number of seasons, Carmarthen Town won the newly formatted theWORD CUP final on penalties against League Leaders The New Saints at Newtown's Latham Park.

The match swung one way and another throughout the ninety minutes and was the subject of constant messaging on twitter from various members urging people to turn on S4/C to watch. A number of the tweets seemed to come from outside Wales with many complimentary remarks regarding the thrill factor.

Extra time was goalless but full of excitement and the match eventually went to penalties with Old Gold keeper Steve Cann saving TNS' keeper Paul Harrison's effort to clinch it by 3-1.

"Wonderful, Fantastic, Brilliant and Unbelievable" That was Mark Aizlewood's feeling after the match.

"These would be my four adjectives to describe the performance of the players," he said proudly at the end of a pulsating match which finished 3-3 after extra time.

"I'm sure that the Old Gold supporters, who made up the bulk of the crowd at Latham Park, would have many other superlatives to describe our amazing shoot-out win against TNS."

"Along with coach Neil Smothers we work constantly with these players but even now we can still be surprised by the resilience, character and levels of fitness they can achieve. Things like dogged determination and spirit is innate - you are unable to train this into players. But, if you add things such as a game plan, fitness, organisation and tactics which you can train into them, you may be surprised how far you can go."

New Signings

Airbus UK Broughton have signed midfielder Luke McCarthy from League One outfit Bury. The 19-year-old, who previously played for Manchester City as a youth, made his debut for the Shakers on the final day of the club 2010/11 season coming on as a substitute against Stevenage Borough.

He signed a new 12-month contract with Bury in June 2011 and, in November, joined Conference National side Grimsby Town on an initial one month loan, making five appearances.

In May 2012 he was offered a new contract by Bury but has now been released.

Also arriving at the Hollingsworth Group Stadium is Reynaldo Carbon, a wingman from Evo Stik Southern League outfit Northwood FC. Carbon has also played for the Metropolitan Police.

International clearance is awaited for both of the new signings.

Goalkeeper Ben Chapman has returned to English side Leek Town following the signing of Liverpool U21 'keeper Jamie Stephens on loan.

Bangor City have released striker Alan Bull on loan to Buckley Town. Bull has been on the bench mostly this season and manager Nev Powell said:

"It's certainly not the end for Alan at Bangor City," City boss Nev Powell says. "It's just he hasn't been playing regularly for us and needs games and our reserves haven't been playing too often either, so that's meant less opportunities for some of our players to get minutes on the pitch."

Nev Powell has completed the signing of Llanelli defender Kris Thomas who had his contract terminated by Llanelli today.

The former Wales Semi-Pro International links up with the League's second-placed club after a two-and-a-half year spell with the Reds, which was his third stint at Llanelli.

Previously, Thomas rejoined Llanelli in the 2009/10 close season from Carmarthen Town. The defender had re-signed for the Old Gold in January 2009, just under six months after leaving the club for Forest Green Rovers.

He will be hoping that Bangor become the third club that he plays for in Europe, having signed an 18-month contract at the BookPeople Stadium.

The former Cwmbran and Merthyr Tydfil player has previously represented Llanelli and Carmarthen in Europe and he scored an outstanding goal in the Intertoto Cup for Carmarthen Town at Newtown against Tampere of Finland.

After a tremendous 2006/07 season with the Old Gold, he was selected for the Wales Semi Professional Squad in 2007 in the Tournament in Inverness and played in the matches against Scotland (sub) and Ireland and he was again selected in 2008 and won five caps in total. He is also a former Welsh Under-18 international and was a Welsh Cup Winner in 2006/07 for the Old Gold and for Llanelli in 2010/11.

Also joining Bangor is midfielder Jamie McDaid from Holyhead Hotspurs. The teenager is also an ex-Caernarfon and Porthmadog playmaker, who played for Wales Under 18's last season. City last week confirmed the signing of striker Robbie Booth from Chester.

Afan Lido have signed experienced goalkeeper, Kristian Rogers, whilst Chris Curtis who has played in all of Lido's League matches this season, has left to join Welsh League side Goytre United.

Rogers arrives from Conwy Borough, for whom he made one appearance, against Welsh Premier League side TNS in the Welsh Cup. In that game Rogers was outstanding for the Musselmen.

The ex-Wrexham stopper was present at the Steeltown derby over Christmas when Port Talbot beat Lido at the GenQuip Stadium and he had already agreed to join the League's bottom club when the window re-opened.

Ironically Rogers will make his Lido debut against one of his former clubs when his new side travels to the Airfield next Tuesday evening for a re-arranged League clash.

Rogers, 32, who is based in Cardiff will wear the number 1 shirt vacated by Curtis and lists Conwy Borough, Wrexham, Sheffield United, Worksop, Northwich Victoria, Airbus UK and Port Talbot Town as his former clubs.

Forgotten man Jones returns to Lido

One of the Welsh Premier League's forgotten faces Craig Jones has re-signed for Afan Lido after an injury-plagued spell at Steeltown rivals, Afan Lido.

Jones is a former Wales Semi-Pro International who was once rated as one of the Welsh Premier League's brightest talents. Having come through the junior ranks at Swansea City, he joined his local side Afan Lido as a teenage striker. The Lido management then converted the Neath-born youngster into an attacking right wing-back and he was instrumental in that role as Lido, then of the Welsh Football League, went all the way to the Welsh Cup Final in May 2007. They lost that day to Carmarthen Town, whose Manager Mark Jones then described him as the 'new Mark Delaney'.

His form that season prompted a move to Llanelli AFC who were full-time and it was under this professional environment in the 2007-08 season, which saw Jones flourish.

After less than three months in the top-flight, he was picked for the Wales U23 Semi Professional side that lost 4-2 to Italy in November 2007. Craig started the game at right-wing back to win his first International Cap and he was also named in the squad for the England fixture in February 2008, but withdrew with injury. He played in the 4 Nations Tournament in North Wales in May 2008 for the full Semi Pro side and it was at this competition, where many Football League scouts were casting their eye over the then Llanelli starlet.

He was again in the International Challenge Trophy Squad for the November 2008 fixture at Llanelli against Finland, but then injury began to hamper his development. He made just 14 starts in the next two seasons with the Reds, before he was released to join Port Talbot where Mark Jones was quick to sign him in June 2010.

He didn't feature for the Steelmen in their first Europa League campaign because of injury and only made 11 League starts in his 30 months at the club, as well as 13 appearances from the bench and failed to register a goal.

Two WPWL players selected for Greek match

Two players from the Welsh Premier Women's League have been called up by Wales team manager Jarmo Matikainen for next week's Friendly International versus Greece.

The players both come from Cardiff City FC, whilst there are also two Swansea City Ladies and another Cardiff City star named on stand-by.

The players to make the squad are five-times capped defender Lauren Price and uncapped striker Catherine Walsh. Price, who is also a Welsh International Boxer and 18-year old Walsh will both be hopeful of gaining some game-time. Former Port Talbot forward Walsh has been prolific in the Welsh Premier Women's League this term for the Bluebirds.

Two other players will be added to the squad before they depart and Swansea duo Sarah Adams and Jodie Passmore, as well as Cardiff's Rachel Rowe, will all be hoping to make the flight.

The squad assembles on Saturday at Bisham Abbey before flying out to Athens that evening. The match will be played at 1.30pm (local) on Wednesday before an evening flight home.

Cup fever hits Newtown

Word Cup fever hit Newtown on Thursday as players from both TNS and Carmarthen Town visited local school Ysgol Penyloddfa.

Latham Park in Newtown will host Saturday's Final at 3:00pm and the new Trophy was taken to the local school by League Secretary Gwyn Derfel, who also handed out tickets to the local school children. Representing the Saints was midfielder Scott Ruscoe, who won the old League Cup five times as well as the club Mascot Spot the Dog. Carmarthen Town's teenage defender Iestyn Evans, Chairman Neil Alexander and club secretary Gareth Jones were in attendance.

Ruscoe believes 'The New Saints will have to play really well to win the Word Cup for the first time; while Evans who's only 17 years old and playing his first senior final 'takes heart and confidence from the fact that Carmarthen are unbeaten in two meeting with the Saints so far this season'.

The build up to Saturday's Final, which is live on S4/C's Sgorio programme, continued on Saturday when Wales Team Manager Chris Coleman took a Question and Answer session at Latham Park before the kick-off

Aizlewood's comments – from page one

“The football public should not underestimate the enormity of what the players did last Saturday. For instance, with TNS being a full time professional club, they were able to work on their game plan for seven consecutive days before the final. We had just two hours on Wednesday evening.”

Looking back at the game Aizlewood admitted that his team “had a sloppy start by conceding an early goal,” adding: “This would have put many teams on the back foot. It is commonly known that once TNS get a lead they are unlikely to give it up easily.”

“Then, in the twenty-second minute, I was faced with the dilemma that Paul Fowler was feeling unwell. This was clearly due to an illness which had not been evident in the build up to the game or at training. After a discussion with Neil, we made the change, and put on Corey Thomas as a substitute. He subsequently went on to score two goals which completely changed the game. This was a risky decision but one which had to be made.”

“After conceding that early goal, we fought our way back into the game twice coming from behind. We were leading with five minutes to go only to concede a third goal to take the game into extra time. At this point I am sure the odds would have been on TNS to take control. However, I knew the strength of character that we have within our squad and was confident of winning in extra time: which we so very nearly did when a Casey Thomas shot went agonisingly just wide of an upright. So the game went to penalties. I instructed the players not to be clever and, if you miss, make sure the goalkeeper has to save it.”

“I would like to finish at this point with the first four words Wonderful, Fantastic, Brilliant, Unbelievable, which is how it feels to bring a trophy back to Richmond Park for the band of fantastic volunteers which run the club and for all of those loyal supporters of the Old Gold.”

The Last Word

from Gwyn Derfel

I have to start by congratulating Carmarthen Town for winning the first ever Word Cup Final at Newtown on Saturday. The New Saints deserve much credit for a close and exciting game which was ultimately won and lost on penalties.

The game itself was obviously pleasing as was the presence of Chris Coleman and fans from the North East, the South West, Mid Wales and Newport. Unfortunately for the fans of the Exiles, their former favourite Julian Alsop didn't step off the bench but celebrated joyfully with the other members of the 'Old Gold' squad.

So the first cup of the season is safely in the Carmarthen cabinet and next Saturday will be an equally important day for them and the other four clubs still fighting for the coveted sixth position in the Corbett Sports Welsh Premier League.

The S4/C live game will come from Maes Tegid as Gap Connah's Quay command the final top half place at present – but regular updates will be provided from Richmond Park as Newtown will also be attempting to keep their top six aspirations alive.

I wish all the clubs involved the very best of luck and hope that the drama of the Word Cup Final last weekend is replicated this coming Saturday.

Y GAIR OLAF

gan Gwyn Derfel

Llongyfarchiadau mawr i Gaerfyrddin ar eu llwyddiant yng Nghwpan Word dros y Sul. Rhaid canmol a chydymdeimlo gyda'r Seintiau am eu cyfraniad nhw i'r achlysur, benderfynwyd ar giciau o'r smotyn yn y pendraw wrth gwrs.

Braf oedd gweld Chris Coleman ym Mharc Latham – felly hefyd gefnogwyr o bob lliw a llun – gan gynnwys rhyw 30 o Gasnewydd ddaeth i wyllo eu cyn ffefryn Julian Alsop yn cynhesu'r fainc drwy gydol yr ornest! Ta waeth fe ddathlodd y blaenwr mawr y fuddugoliaeth yn frwdfrydig gyda gweddill y garfan wedi'r chwiban olaf.

Felly mae cwpan cynta'r tymor yn ddiogel ym meddiant Caerfyrddin – ond mae'r Sadwrn nesaf yma'n hynod bwysig i'r clwb hefyd – gan fod yr 'Hen Aur' a phedwar clwb arall yn dal i frwydro am y chweched safle gwerthfawr yn Uwch Gynghrair Cymru – Corbett Sports.

Bydd camerau S4/C yn darlledu'n fyw o Faes Tegid ddydd Sadwrn – gan mai Gap Cei Connah sy'n hawlio'r chweched safle cyn y gêm olaf o'r rhan yma o'r tymor – ond bydd y newyddion diweddaraf o Barc Waun Dew yn cael ei ddarlledu hefyd wrth i Gaerfyrddin a'r Drenewydd geisio manteisio ar eu cyfleoedd nhw.

Pob lwc i'r holl glybiau sy'n rhan o'r cyffro mawr. Mae penwythnos arall fyw ar ein nerfau o'n blaenau.
