Last minute transfer rush....

Bangor City manager Nev Powell was on the ball with his signing of defender Ryan Edwards. We reported last week that Edwards had bought out his contract with Airbus UK Broughton having made a club record of 185 starts for the Wingmakers.

Forward Casey Thomas has joined his brother Corey at Richmond Park. Carmarthen Town manager Mark Aizlewood signed the twenty-one year old after he was released by Swansea City after a loan spell at Colchester United

The Old Gold boss was quite busy before the deadline as he also managed to sign defender Kyle Graves who was with Neath last season.. This follows last week's headline signing of Liam McCreech from Sydney club Northern Tigers.

Nicky Ward has joined Newtown after leaving The New Saints earlier in the week by mutual consent. This will be Ward's second spell with the Robins and joins former TNS team-mate Barry Hogan snapped up by Newtown team boss Bernie McNally earlier last week.

Airbus UK Broughton manager Andy Preece brought in former Wrexham, The New Saints and Team Bath striker Steve Abbott from Rushall Olympic as the deadline moved into its final hours. Abbott had played under Preece at Northwich Victoria.

Llanelli pay off the tax man

LLANELLI AFC have comfortably staved off a winding order from HM Revenue and Customs.

In a statement on Friday the club said:

"Llanelli AFC can confirm that the outstanding money owed to HMRC was paid this afternoon and the subsequent winding order will not be actioned.

"The club will now look forward to tomorrow's match at Connah's Quay and the rest of the season."

Officials at the club were confident all along that the dispute with the taxman would be resolved and would not affect the future of the club.

The hearing was due to take place at the Royal Courts of Justice on Monday but, as promised in a mid-week statement, Chairman Nitin Parekh has now dealt with the issue.

Nomads in high spirits after first win

by Paul Wheelock, Flintshire Chronicle

Gap Connah's Quay were in buoyant mood for the visit of Llanelli to Deeside Stadium on Saturday after they recorded their first victory since winning promotion back to the Welsh Premier League.

Heartbroken by a last-minute defeat at Bangor City in their big season opener, Mark McGregor's men bounced back as they beat Port Talbot Town 2-0 last weekend. An encouraging crowd of 238 watched Nomads' first home game of the season and McGregor is hoping for more of the same against Llanelli.

The player-manager, who is looking to add to his squad, said: "It was a good attendance considering Airbus and Flint were at home and the likes of Everton and Manchester United were on at a similar time. We're doing everything we can to promote the club. There's a real buzz around the place and we want the community to buy into it."

New boy Mike Thompson broke the deadlock in the 33rd minute after he punished some slack play by Matty Crowell with a low strike into the bottom corner. Thompson, thriving in a new position, turned provider four minutes later as he robbed the ball off goalkeeper Craig Richards and crossed for Gary O'Toole to tap in.

O'Toole nearly netted again before the break, when he shot against the post, before the talismanic Ricky Evans – who McGregor said 'rolled back the years' despite not being fully fit – went close early in the second half.

Port Talbot enjoyed plenty of possession but never truly looked like breaking down Nomads, for whom Daniel Dobbins and Michael Robinson were superb.

McGregor said: "They had more possession. We expect that to be the case in the majority of our matches but we can score goals against any team. It was an excellent professional performance."

McGregor was impressed by the display of teenage striker Rhys Healey from the bench.

McGregor said: "He's only 17 but a major prospect who I think can play in the Football League. He's raw but I'm sure he can score goals in the Welsh Premier if he learns from Gary O'Toole and Ricky Evans."

Saints youngsters in first Wales Futsal Squad...

The New Saints youngsters Tom Allen and Niam Arsan have both been named in the first ever Wales Futsal squad for the first International match against Andorra.

On Saturday 1st September the National Futsal squad will travel to play two International fixtures against Andorra.

This will be a landmark occasion in Welsh football as it will be the first ever Welsh Futsal International fixture.

A talented squad has been assembled and have been challenged to develop quickly and catch up on other nations who have been playing Futsal Internationally for many years. The contest will be good preparation for the Welsh squad as they prepare for the UEFA Futsal EURO qualifiers which will take place in January 2013.

Wales opponents Andorra, despite being small in population, possesses a vastly more experienced Futsal team. They have made seven appearances in UEFA Futsal EURO qualifying campaigns and competing to qualify for four FIFA Futsal World Cups.

Players from their squad play in the professional Spanish Futsal league and will prove a very tough test for Wales. Wales will play two fixtures against Andorra with the matches taking place on the 2nd and 3rd of September at the home of Andorra Futsal - Pavelló Prat Gran (Escaldes-Engordany)

Facility project for 2013 Euro championship completed

Representatives from Welsh Grounds Improvements (WGI) recently handed over a plaque to Llanelli AFC to commemorate the completion of a grant aided project at the club's Stebonheath ground.

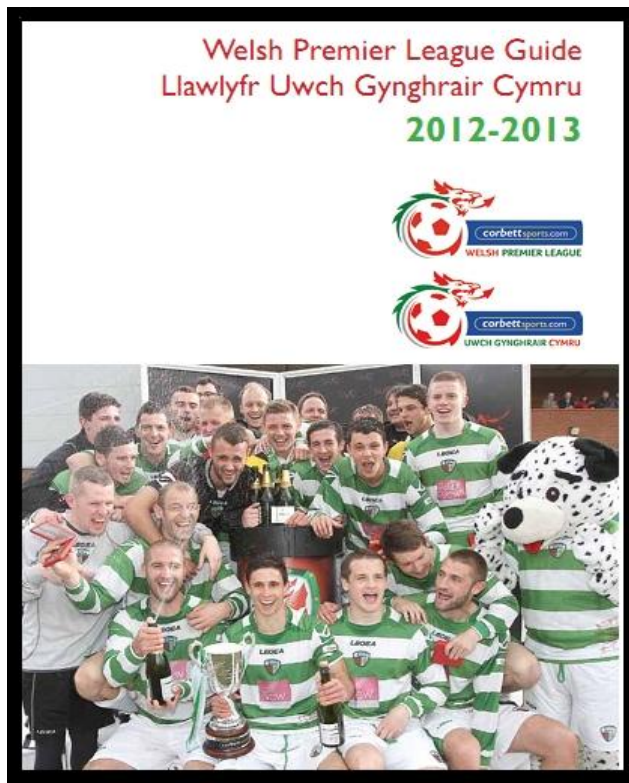

£12,750 of WGI special project monies helped pay for a new drug control room at the Club, an improvement necessary for it to meet ground criteria to host matches for the women's under 19 Euro tournament to be hosted in West Wales next year.

In the picture with WGI Directors David Griffiths and John Harris are Carl Lucas, Leader of Llanelli Town Council and Nigel Richards, Llanelli AFC General Manager.

David Griffiths said, "Welsh Grounds Improvements is delighted that this project, funded in partnership with Llanelli Town Council, has been completed. Wales is proud to have been awarded the 2013 Euro tournament by UEFA and it is important that we set the right impression by ensuring that the host grounds meet the required criteria. In addition to this project WGI provided £0.5m funding in 2011/12 to 66 projects in the FAW directly affiliated leagues which has helped improve facilities across the length and breadth of the Country. "

The Last Word by Gwyn Derfel

Isn't human reaction to certain situations remarkable?

Following the Citizens defeat at Newton a week earlier -I'm sure that Neville Powell's team talk at the Book People Stadium on Saturday would have been inspiring anyway but having surviving members of the Bangor side which beat Napoli 2-0 at Farrar Road in September 1962 observing an immaculate minute's silence in memory of former colleague Bill Souter obviously struck a further chord with the players.

The team's performance in the first half was inspired and inspiring. Flowing football with more than a touch of class was too much for Aberystwyth to handle. It was 6-1 at the break with Siôn Edwards having bagged a classy and clinical hat-trick.

The game finished 7-1 of course and it will be interesting to see what the outcome is on Tuesday night as Bangor travel to Park Avenue. What will the human reaction of both teams be then.

There was plenty of excitement away from Nantporth over the weekend. The New Saints 4-1 victory over Prestatyn emphasised again that they are going to be the team to beat and there were also promising performances and results secured by Gap Connah's Quay, Port Talbot, Airbus UK and Afan Lido.

As well as many return fixtures on Tuesday night – the New Cup Competition is launched as well. Four Welsh League clubs and four Huws Gray Alliance outfits will be battling it out for the right to host Corbett Sports WPL clubs in round two. All the best to all involved.

Mae'r modd y mae pobl yn ymateb i wahanol sefyllfaoedd yn dal i fy rhyfeddu ambell waith.

Yn dilyn eu colled yn Y Drenewydd y Sadwrn cynt fe ymatebodd Bangor yn arbennig yn erbyn Aberystwyth. Efallai bod geiriau Neville Powell yn yr ystafell newid cyn y gêm wedi taro tant neu efallai bod presenoldeb aelodau o dîm y Dinasyddion gurodd Napoli yn '62 yn Nanporth yn cofio am eu cyd-aelod Bill Souter wedi ysbrydoli'r chwaraewyr.

I'r rheiny ohonoch oedd ddim yn gwylio Sgorio brynhawn Sadwrn 7-1 oedd y sgôr terfynol, gyda Bangor wedi sgorio chwech ymhell cyn yr egwyl.

Siôn Edwards oedd yr arwr lleol unwaith eto – tair gôl o safon uchel iawn. Bydd hi'n ddiddorol gweld ymateb y ddau dîm pan fyddan nhw'n herio'i gilydd eto nos Fawrth yng Nghoedlan y Parc.

'Roedd digon o gyffro mewn manau eraill yn y Cynghrair dros y penwythnos hefyd. Fe brofodd buddugoliaeth Y Seintiau Newydd o 4-1 yn erbyn Prestatyn mai'r Pencampwyr yw'r ceffylau blaen unwaith eto eleni. Cafwyd perfformiadau a chanlyniadau i'w canmol hefyd gan Gap Cei Connah, Port Talbot, Airbus UK a Lido Afan.

Bydd nifer o glybiau'r Uwch Gynghrair yn wynebu ei gilydd unwaith eto nos Fawrth a'r un noson bydd cystadleuaeth y Cwpan Newydd yn cael ei lawnsio. Bydd wyth o dimau o Gynghrair Cymru a Chynghrair Huws Gray yn herio'i gilydd am yr hawl i groesawu clwb o Uwch Gynghrair Cymru – Corbett Sports yn yr ail rownd. Pob lwc i bawb sy'n ymwneud gyda'r gystadleuaeth newydd.
